Sailing

Well it's not far down to Paradise
at least it's not for me
And if the wind is right you can sail away,
Find tranquility
Oh, the canvas can do miracles
Just you wait and see . . .
Believe in me . . .

It's not far to never never land
No reason to pretend
And if the wind is right you can find the joy
Of innocence again
Oh, the canvas can do miracles
Just you wait and see . . .
Believe in me . . .

Fantasy; It gets the best of me
When I'm sailing
All caught up in the reverie
Every word is a symphony Won't you believe in me . . .

It's not far back to sanity
At least it's not for me
And if the wind is right
You can sail away
Find serenity
Oh, the canvas can do miracles
Just you wait and see . . .
Believe in me . . .

Sailing takes me away
To where I've always heard it could be Just a dream and the wind to carry me
Soon I will be free

Homecoming — The Parade

Finishing touches were applied on the floats this crisp, October morning. The parade was a high-spirited event that united the Fairport Raiders. The senior princesses were Donna Brindisi, Elizabeth Giles, Mary Jean Mulhall, and Sandy Suchanik with Junior princesses Elizabeth Bosch, Jeannine Boyd, Tracy Coyne, and Aimee Crouch, and sophomore princesses Darryl Bates and Carolyn Madden. The floats this year proved to be extremely creative, based on the theme, "The Rise of the Raiders — the Fall of the Knights." The senior class received the award for best float for the second consecutive year.

Homecoming — The Game

The sun was shining and the temperature soared on the seventeenth day of October. It was a perfect day for Fairport's 13th annual Homecoming Festivities. The Pittsford Sutherland Knights arrived to make their challenge, but the Red Raiders scored every quarter for an exciting rout of 33-0. During half-time, the main event was the choosing of the 1981 Homecoming Queen, crowned by Senior Class President Owen Philben and Vice President Mike Reinhardt. The winner was Donna Brindisi.

I wonder where will we be,
 what will we be doing,
 a year from now,
 even longer?
 Will we be filled with happiness, content,
 our dreams fulfilled,
 ideals upheld?
 Or, will our hopes lay shattered,
 like a crystal goblet, dropped
 on cold concrete.
 Looking beyond our blanket,
 high school,
 our security slips away.
 Wonder wanders in.
 We grow out and away,
 but we have been,
 always will be,
 our class.

People come and people go;
You miss the ones you used to know
You shed a tear to stop the pain;
but now those tears must not remain Look back to the good times you had Never feel sorry; never feel sad.

Once in a dream . . .
I was walking down the beach with the Lord.
Two sets of footprints were seen. As the Lord took me and showed visions of my past life there were times when only one set of footprints could be seen in the sand. These times were during the hardest times of my life. I finally asked the Lord, when we were finished, "You said you would be by my side all through my life, but in the worst times of my life there were only one set of footprints." The Lord replied, "I always kept my promise, during the worst times, I was carrying you."

Kevin Fee '81
(Irish religious tale)

He cast his love to one and all,
now he's taken his final call So next time you think of him, think of love, not sin
And when our lives have come to an end then we'll see him once again
And someday you will see his face in the final resting place.

Senior Class Officers

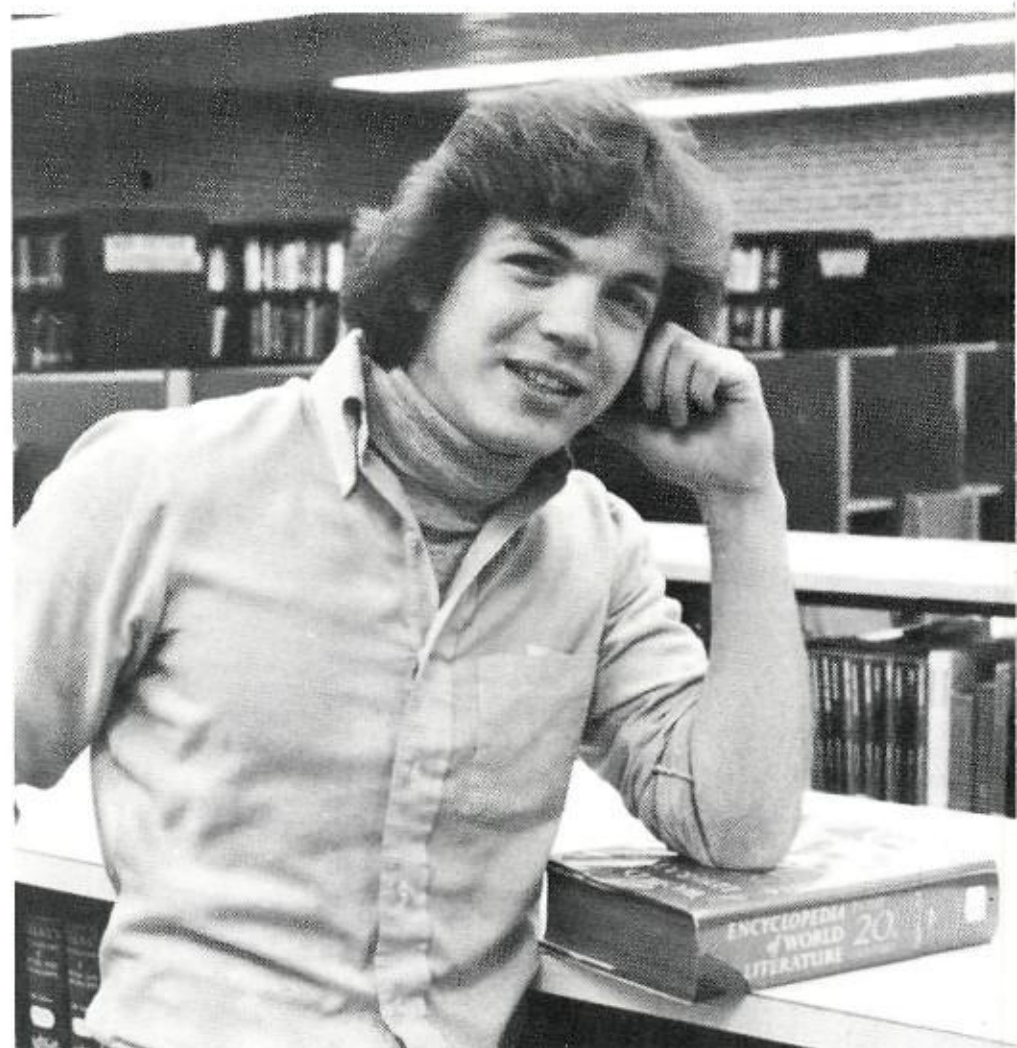

Owen Philbin — President

For months the questions gnawed at me,
Why? Why? Am I here?
Who am I?
I looked around —
Everyone else seemed content;
Why weren't they asking the same questions?
Then it hit me.
Of course they weren't asking the same Questions!
No one thinks the same . . .
No one is the same . . .
It was then that I became . . . myself.

M. Reinhardt

(One bit of advice) . . . If you don't know what to do,
About a world of trouble,
You can pull it through,
If you need to, and if,
You believe it's true,
It will surely happen,
Eyes that have seen,
Will know what I mean —

T. Rundgren

Mike Reinhardt — Vice President

Donna Brindisi — Treasurer

Never having much to say of any importance, when asked to write a Class Officer quote I developed a severe case of writer's block. I needed something corny like "We may not have all decided what we want to do, but we all have dreams. Keep reaching for the top, because for us, second best just isn't enough." I never did think of anything so I gave it up.

Special thanks to everyone — You've made me who I am, and without you I'd be someone else.

Dan Klass

Dan Klass — Secretary

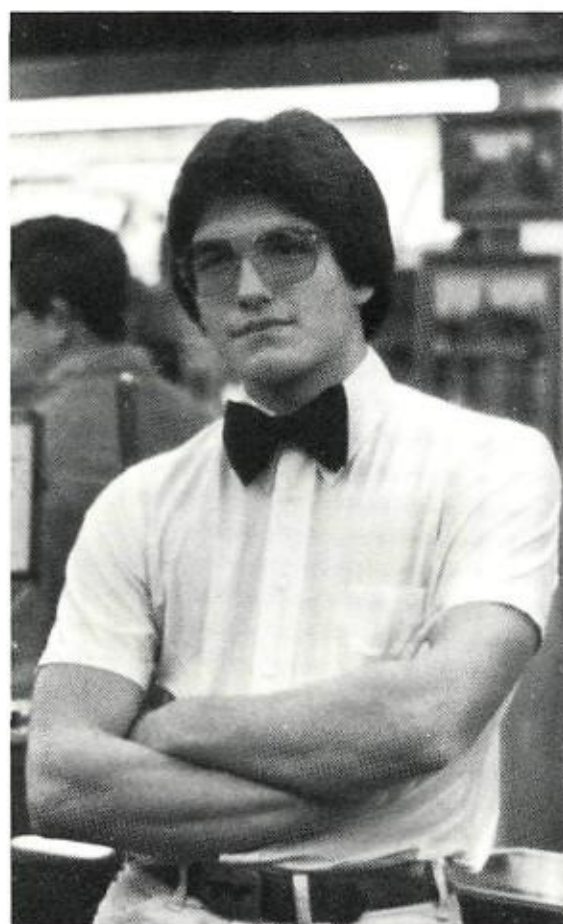

While FHS students spend up to seven hours a day laboring academically, many put in extra hours at part time jobs. These jobs are generally detrimental to the mental well-being of students but are redeemed to be a worthwhile "experience" by adults. Unfortunately many students are forced to resolve to such mental anguish in order to attend college. So now — A tribute to these courageous IDIOTS!

So far,
We have lived our days
To the fullest.

We look back on Time gone by
And days
That have passed.

Our recollections
Are complete
Are more colorful
Than the leaves
Of an autumn maple.

But in the future,
We will rekindle
Old friendships
And find more joy
In meeting
New people.

The past is A jar of memories
And the future
A lid to preserve them

The Fairport Red Raiders completed their season with an 8-2 record and runner-up in Section V Class AAA. The Raiders overcame an early loss to hands of Pittsford Mender and won 6 consecutive games to earn a spot in the championship finals. These 6 wins included a 31-13 thrashing of Aquinas, then the number 2 team in the state. The Raiders also humiliated Sutherland on Homecoming 33-0. After surviving a 10-7 thriller at Irondequoit the Raiders retained possession of the little brown jug in a win over East Rochester in the mud and cold 23-7.

The following week the Raiders met Aquinas again for the right to advance into the sectional championship. A fired-up Aquinas team was looking for revenge for the early loss, but were denied once again. The Red Raiders blitzed the little Irish on the artificial turf at f Stadium 20-8.

The next week was a different story because every imaginable thing that could have gone wrong did. The Raiders suffered a humbling 42-15 defeat at the hands of Greece Athena. The Raiders finished a respectable 3rd in the county.

Row 2: Brian Fish, Bill DiRisio, Jock Mutschler, Dan Coughlin, Mike Dormer, Mark Talbot, Mark Dahl, Andres Johannsen, Brian Solarek, Jim Thibedau, Scott Quinn, Coach Smith.

The 1981 Boy's Varsity soccer team managed to put together a somewhat respectable season w/a 6-8-2 record.

Seniors on this year's team were Bob Lasher (captain), Deano Welch (captain), Jock Mutschler (captain), Bill Dirisio, Mike Dormer, Jim Thibideau.

Anders Johnson, a swedish exchange student was a great asset to the team this year.

Special tribute should go to Jock Mutschler for making all-county once again. Coach Smith should also be recognized for the tremendous effort he put into the season.

Varsity Girl's Soccer

Row 2: Emily Decker, Kim Weiner, Kathe Baxer, Tania Trauman, Sue Randall, Maria Zurakowski, Kathy Hitchcock, Dena Rigono, Lisa Kull.

Row 3: Coach Longhouse, Sue Miller, Audrey Kramer, Dorthy LaMour, Jacquie Halliday, Donna Glitzer, Daria DeFusto, Christy Juckette, DeDe Saylor.

Fairport Girls varsity soccer team had an overall record of 7-5-4. After a summer league record of 1-7 both the girls and Coach Longhouse were pleased with a winning season. This year's seniors include co-captains, Kelly O'Brien, and Kathy Shamblen, Liz Dinkel, Karen Embury and a newcomer to Fairport, Liz Almstead. The team was very young with many of the strong players, including the goalie, only sophomores and freshmen.

Varsity Field Hockey

Michele Boudreau, Carol Salvagio, Nancy Robinson, Molly McEvilly, Karen Bunt, Jenni Lent, Liz Wohiford, Debbie Cruickshant, Diane Beretski, Sue Millard, Carol Summerhay, Jan Brogan, Erin Sweeney, Julie Brogan, Hanna Draper, Lori Zuris, Aimee Lyons, Kathy Pelin, Dianne Hotchkiss, Lori Neary, Pam Brennan, Nancy Biellak, Anne Mahoney, Paula Goodermote, Vikki Motala, Coach Boardman

Team spirit was a strong attribute of the Fairport field hockey players as displayed through the wearing of red and white monogrammed T-shirts before games.

The "stick women's" co-captains were Diane Hotchkiss and Kathy Pelin, two of the five seniors participating this year.

Managers Diane Baretsky and Michele Boudreau contributed support by clocking games and keeping records.

Although the girls had a frustrating season, they were dedicated and spent much of their time and effort improving their athletic skills. Fairport did score two goals on Eastridge, a team which only had five goals scored against it all season.

Girl's Cross Country

Row 1: Michelle Hotchkiss, Sue Morton.

Row 2: Sharon Beagan, Tracy Engel, Pam Anderson, Kathy Fallon.

1981 will be remembered as the muddiest cross-country season in years. The cross-country team pounded out about 20,000 miles in just nine weeks, in which over half was in tropical rains and ankle deep mud. After losing 8 out of the top 10 runners due to graduation, they compiled a team of seven that won twelve in a row without superstars, making their final record 14-6. After being ranked 12th in the county in a Democrat and Chronical Poll, a group called N.I.T.S.A. emerged. NITSA is short for "Not In The Shadow Anymore." Team captains Steve Kissel, Greg Herlan and top runners Dan Rodens, Mike Halter, Rich Huetteman, Steve Levy and Greg West led the team to a second place finish in their division and 4th place finish in the county. Who said cross-country isn't fun? They had Freshman shower day, 7 miles a day and 50 hills a week, along with mud wars, spaghetti dinners, football games and wild weekends. Surely this year will be remembered by all members for a long time to come.

— Steve Kissel

This year's Girls' Varsity Tennis Team consisted of 14 devoted girls. They lived for Tennis, followed closely by food and boys. They made countless sacrifices to make it to practice each day. Many of them went for 8 weeks without General Hospital. Overzealous practices were the cause of an injury or two, mostly broken nails, I think. Each girl struggled constantly to improve her game, occasionally returning home to cold dinners and unsympathetic parents. They persevered in unfavorable weather, often practicing in the gym among weightlifting equipment and the cheerleaders.

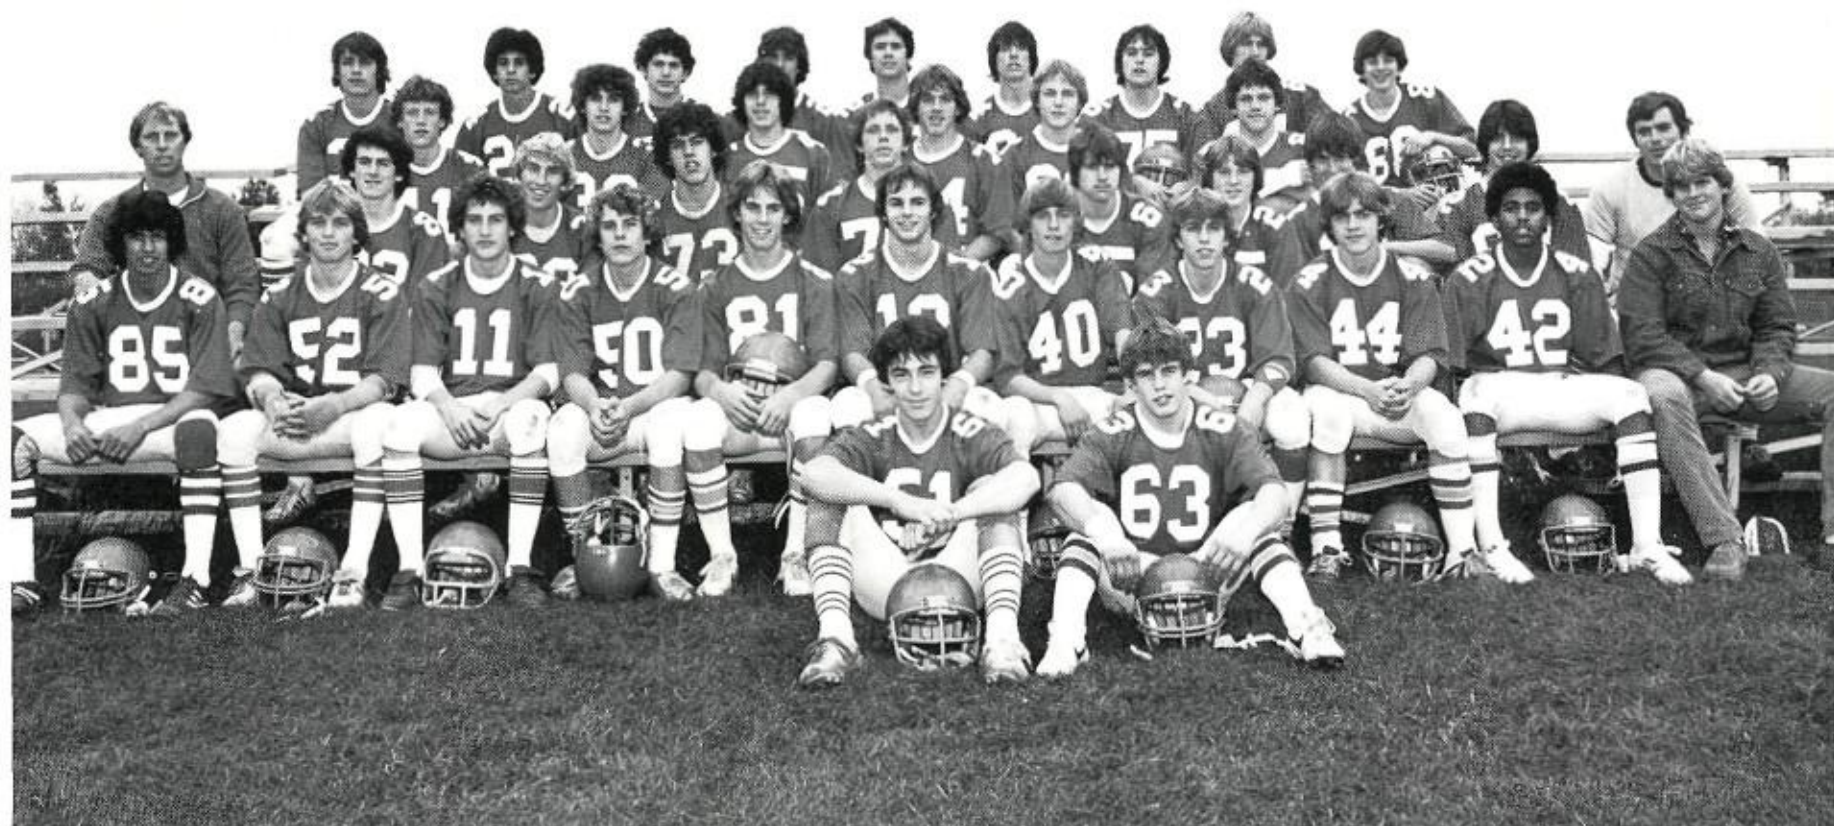

The result of all this enthusiastic effort was a winning season, impressive showing in Sectional, County and State competition. And the understanding that they get out of the practices what they put into them. They played competitive tennis with good results and had a good time doing it.

VARSITY CHEERLEADING

The fall Varsity cheerleaders worked hard during this season supporting 3 successful teams. They cheered for varsity football, boys' varsity soccer, and girls soccer. They lead the crowd at pep rallies, decorated team buses and locker rooms, marched in the homecoming parade and put in many hours a week making posters. The cheerleading coach Miss Bradford put in large amounts of time and devotion to make the cheerleaders have an exciting and successful season. The senior co-captains this year were Donna Brindisi and Sandy Suchanick.

 Row 2: Pete Teumer, Barry Sullivan, Mr. Fitch, Eric Peterson, Phil Yawman, Brad Ecker, Ray Ruff.
 Missing — Dave Ruller, Mark Lundquist.

Although Basketball's first week of practice was cut into by the football season the team has been having a successful season. Coach Fitch feels that the team can be competitive, consistent and in the top half of their division. They have had many close games — the winner sometimes less than three points above the loser. Seniors this year are Chris Reed, Gregg Gorcica, Brad Ecker, Pete Teumer, Barry Sullivan and Gary Roessel.

Row 2: Chris Gabreilli, Pam Gabreilli, Allison Woolley, Sue Mayer, Roz Washington, Audrey Kramer, Wendy Fee, Vicki Whittemore, Coach Schmeelk.

Girl's Basketball team was very young and inexperienced this year. It consisted of 1 senior, 8 juniors, 2 sophomores and 1 freshman. Seven of the twelve had no experience with varsity before this year. The girls had a tough season but they worked hard and had a good time.

Missing: Tim Mannix, Tom Green.

This year the varsity hockey team was once again coached by Ron Wheeler. Although three of the starting players Larry Gordon, Tom Green, and Tim Mannix were injured early in the season, the team pulled through with a tremendous effort. This was shown in their 5-3 victory over Aquinas, one of hockey's top-ranked teams. This year's captains and leading scorers were Andy Lewand and Larry Gordon.

Coach Logan feels the team is balanced and working hard this year. They are particularly strong in their heavyweights with Chris Barker and Gerry Walters. The team has been wrestling well and their record at the present time is 5-3-1. The team has been hurt by both the long football season cutting into the required number of practices — and several injuries. Dave Smith, Karlton Wong, and Tom Jackson have all been injured during the season.

The Fairport Alpine Ski Team consists of a woman's varsity team, and men's varsity and J.V. teams. Captains are Dave Klavsons, Craig Hostadder, and Colleen Horan.

The team practices at Bristol and Brantling. Every Tuesday night, they race a two-run slalom at Brantling. All three teams consistently take first place in these races.

Saturday races are held at Swain or Bristol. Fairport competes against all of section five each week in a two-run giant slalom and a one-run slalom.

The ski team is a young team consisting of mostly juniors and sophomores. Coach Tim Damon feels that the team has a lot of potential in the future.

Seniors Pete Young, Jim Dirisio, Rich Huettemann, Anne Fitzpatrick, Kim Giblin and juniors Mark Straka, Mike Halter, Darol Bates, Deanna Rasone, and Kris Tellefson, will play major roles in the team's success. Those Charming Cheerleaders!

A book at last

The days final bell
resounds in my mind.
I exit the classroom,
looking forward to a busy afternoon.

In the time after class
I find completion through accomplishment

The time that I contribute is fractional, compared to the growth that takes place, and I do not regret having spent an hour after school with people who believe like myself,
that there is more to school than Math, Science, and English.

Editors note:

I've learned a lot from putting this book together. I've learned how to cope with frustration, pressure and the deadlines that seemed to sneak up from behind. At times I felt like dropping the whole thing and running away, but I always came back. Now that it's over and the book is here I'd like to thank the people who helped me finish it. My special thanks go to the administrators and teachers for their friendly smiles, especially Mr. Obenauf, who was always there to help solve the week's crisis, and the secretaries, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Aman for their help and support while putting up with my hassles. Secondly, I thank my teachers for accepting my absences from their classes while I got this book done. My family, particularly my parents, receive my gratitude, they always listened and comforted me in times of acute frustration. They lent a helping hand in a time of need. To all my friends, I thank you all for listening, calling and being there during the hard times. Many thanks to Steve Sherwood of Taylor Publishing Company for his advice, support, encouraging words and visits to check up on me, and to the Wilcoxes for their wonderful photography and cooperation, even with last minute favors. I thank the advisor, Mrs. Hooper, for her support, listening, time and expert handling of sales. Finally, I thank my staff, without photographers, artists, typists, poets, journalists, and layout staff, this book could never have been done. Thanks to all of you for putting up with and sticking with me throughout the year. Good luck to all!

The Fairport She-Sharks completed their most successful swimming season in 1981 and they're looking forward to continuing Fairport's powerful dominance in Monroe County and New York State swimming this spring. Once again, Coach Marilyn Thomas' team combined for a winning season of 10-0, the team's second straight sectional win and third consecutive Monroe County Championship Title. With the return of the entire roster, this spring's team should prove to establish the She-Sharks as the most outstanding girls sport in Fairport High School's History.

Perhaps one of the most important groups in our school is one of the most frequently taken for granted and overlooked. These people are our janitors. This group of men dedicate their time to cleaning up after the students, some of whom are neglectful slob. They are responsible not only for cleaning the school, but also for the building's maintenance.

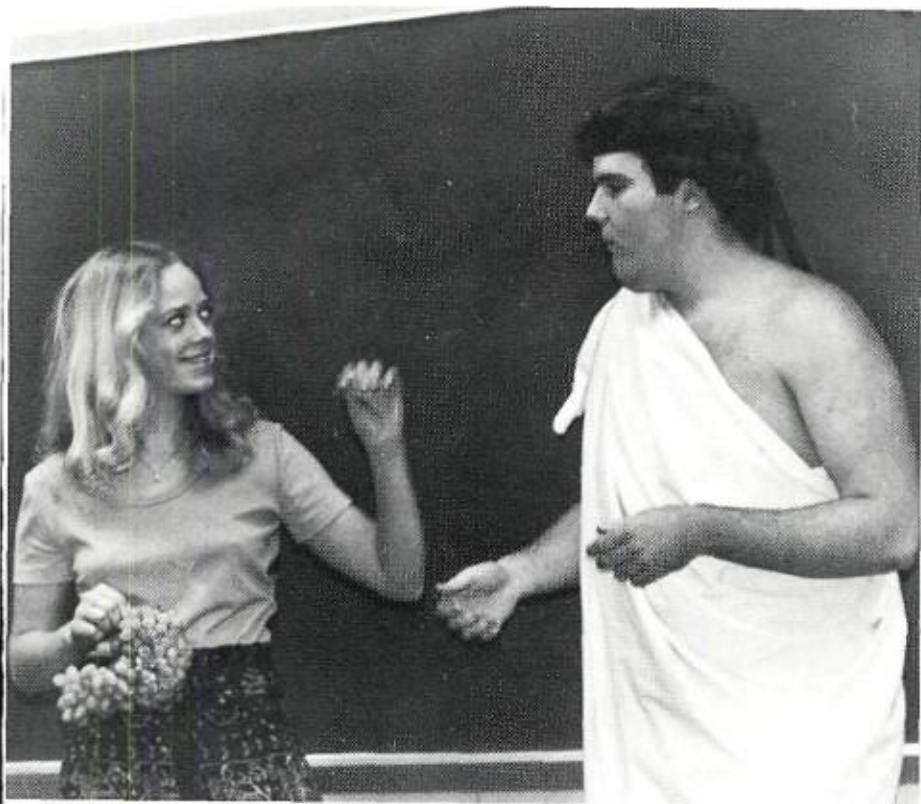

Janitors we thank you!

Life is . . .
reaching out and grasping something no one else has and sharing it with them.

We can walk our road together
If our goals are all the same
We can run alone and free
If we pursue a different aim.

Let the truth of love
be lighted
Let the love of truth shine clear Sensibility Aimed with sense and liberty
With the heart and mind united in a single, perfect sphere.
